Reviewer A:

Abstract of the Article:
Poor

Note for abstract of the Article:

1. The abstract has not presented the sample and number of samples, the sampling selection method, the analytical techniques used to test the hypothesis, the software used to help analyze the data. The abstract also has not written down the test results related to the role of moderation tested in the research. The writing of keywords needs to be corrected.

Article Research Problem:
Poor

Note for article Research Problem:
Does not present the research problem to be solved.

Information/Data of the research problem:
Poor

Note For Information/Data of the research problem:
Does not present data of the research problem

Problem solving:
Poor

Note For Problem solving:
Does not present problem solving.

The research gap:
Average

Note For The research gap:
All previous research results that indicate a research gap are research conducted domestically. Has not presented research findings abroad

Literature review:
Poor

Note For Literature review:
Does not present the theory that underlies the research. Only using domestic literature, no foreign literature. Literature review only defines research variables.

State of the art:

Poor

Note For State of the art:

Does not present state of the art.

Theoretical/conceptual framework:

Below Average

Note For Theoretical/conceptual framework:

Conceptual frameworks and hypotheses emerge suddenly, without any underlying argument.

Methodology:

Poor

Note For Methodology:

This study examines the effect, why is it called descriptive study?

Data collection techniques and instrument development:

Poor

Note For Data collection techniques and instrument development:

Does not mention the data collection technique used.

Data Analysis techniques:

Below Average

Note Data Analysis techniques:

The use of regression should specify what regression.

Result of hypothesis testing:

Poor

Note for result of hypothesis testing:

All findings do not support the hypothesis.

The significance of finding:

Poor

Note for the significance of finding:

All findings do not support the hypothesis

Conclusion of the research problem:

Poor

Note For Conclusion of the research problem*:

Because all hypotheses are rejected, so the research results do not contribute to scientific development.

Suggestion of research problem solving:

Poor

Note for suggestion of research problem solving:

16. Putting a variable into the intervening and moderating variable cannot be done just like that, but there must be a scientific argument. Placing inappropriate variables into the model to be tested can result in the hypothesis being tested not being proven as a result of not being supported by a good theoretical framework. Researchers should be careful when making suggestions on this matter.

Citation and style of references:

Average

Note for citation and style of references:

It's not consistent to write a bibliography, for example, some have their doi addresses written, some don't

Rejection Notes

The content of the paper is very simple. No intellectual challenge. Many similar studies have been carried out by other researchers. No novelty. All hypotheses were rejected. All of this causes the results of this research not to contribute to the development of science. The presentation of the paper also does not follow the predetermined template. Paper quality is very poor. Foreign references are very less.
